

your Bible has been buddied

This is to certify that your Bible has been buddied with a much-needed new Bible somewhere around the world.

Your Bible's buddy will be printed and put into the hands of somebody who has never had their own Bible in their own language before. It might be in a country where Bibles are very expensive, hard to find or illegal to own. It might be one of the first batch of Bibles printed in that person's native language, ever.

When you're next reading your Bible, think of and pray for the person who might now be reading their new Bible alongside you. This gift is a huge answer to prayer for them. Thank you on their behalf!
